NOTES:

CHALLENGE

Residential fires create a multitude of challenges in addition to firefighting. You have arrived at this scene. It's your call!

DISCUSSION

- What hazards might be present at this location?
- How would your tactics be affected if you knew the home was occupied, unoccupied or you were uncertain?
- What impact does the close proximity of other residents have on scene safety and tactics?
- How often do we encounter situations like this one?
- Do our drills address situations like this scenario adequately?
- How can we improve our drills?

The greatest asset of the fire service is our people; protect them!
